

Do you have a passion for sport and love meeting new people?

Do you have great communication skills and can spare 3 hours a week?

Background

Since colonial times, Adelaide Oval has hosted the highest levels of both cricket and football, forging an iconic historic and cultural presence in South Australia. The newly developed Adelaide Oval will continue to enhance this proud sporting tradition by delivering an internationally renowned, world-class venue for the 21st Century, and hosting an extensive range of international and national sporting and live entertainment events.

Volunteer Role

The tours and museums are essential to ensuring this iconic, world class stadium can be experienced and enjoyed by visitors from near and far throughout the year. Adelaide Oval Volunteers help by conducting tours of the Adelaide Oval, providing information to visitors and assisting in the supervision of the Bradman Collection on loan from the State Library of South Australia.

What you need to know

As a tour guide you will need to have understanding of the structure and history of cricket and football in South Australia and Adelaide Oval. We will provide you with training and orientation to develop your knowledge and skills.

Being a volunteer with Adelaide Oval enables you to work in an amazing environment with friendly, like-minded people. You will gain knowledge, develop skills and know you are very much appreciated!

Your role as a volunteer may include the following tasks:

- Delivering interactive, engaging and informative 90 minute walking tours of Adelaide Oval.
- Initiating the “meet and greet” at the commencement of the tour.
- Engaging visitors and presenting information about the history and development of Adelaide Oval.
- Supervision of the Bradman Collection as required.
- And most importantly, having fun!
